This filing is in response to your letter of October 4, 2012, regarding our July 2012 Quarterly Report.

1. Your letter states that we received contributions for the Primary Election following the date of Rep. Ackerman's announcement that he would not seek re-election this year.

We were not aware that we could not accept Primary contributions following the date of the termination of candidacy.

We find four Primary 2012 contributions totaling $9500 that meet the conditions stated above, and on October 9, 2012, we issued refund checks to those donors, as follows:

Robert Leslie Deak, $500;
APMA Political Action Committee, $2500;
Honeywell International PAC, $2500; and
IBEW-COPE, $4000.

2. Your letter asks for more information regarding the disposition of contributions we have received for the General 2012 election.

All such contributions have been refunded. Nearly all of these contributions were refunded during the second quarter of 2012, and were reported as such on our July 15 Quarterly Report. Two General 2012 contributions were refunded during the first quarter of 2012, and were reported as such on the April 15 Quarterly Report. Finally, two additional General 2012 contributions, including one memoed partnership contribution, were refunded during the second quarter of 2012. These two refunds were not reported as they fell below the >$200 reporting threshold.

We believe this answers the questions raised in your October 4 letter. If you have any additional questions or require more information, please let us know.
